HOMEWORK –

Read YouCat Paragraphs 400-406, 415-420. What is love? What is chaste love?

Love is patient, love is kind and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant, does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered, does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails; but if there are gifts of prophecy, they will be done away; if there are tongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be done away. 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

For St. Therese [of Lisieux]

every day was a day of profound thanksgiving. One day she told her sister Celine:

It is the spirit of gratitude which draws down upon us the overflow of God's grace, for no sooner have we thanked Him for one blessing than He hastens to send us ten additional favors in return. Then, when we show our gratitude for these new gifts, He multiplies His benedictions to such a degree that there seems to be a constant stream of divine grace ever coming our way.

This has been my own personal experience; try it out for yourself and see. For all that Our Lord is constantly giving me, my gratitude is boundless, and I try to prove it to Him in a thousand different ways."

What does this Scripture mean to you? Does it help explain what love is or is not? Why do you think St. Paul wrote that letter? Write your reflection on the reverse side of this paper.

Pray the Our Father very slowly every day until next class. Pray the Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel on Page 33 of the purple prayer book. Try to memorize it. We say it at the end of every Mass at St. Gall. It's powerful!
