

Saint's Day Parade for JOYFUL SUNDAYS

Sunday, October 20 at 10:00pm

It's almost Halloween! Well, actually, it's almost All Saints Day November 1 and All Souls Day on November 2, too! We will have a Saints Day parade at the beginning of the 4:30p.m. classes on October 30. This is a fun way to talk about those holy people that have become a part of the Communion of Saints. Can't think of a Saint for your child to dress up as? You can look at this link at Loyola Press:

http://www.loyolapress.com/saints-stories-for-kids.htm?class_id=17&parent_class_id=

We are going to try to guess which Saint they are. If they have props, that will help. Also, they should memorize a few facts so they could answer questions: years they lived, what they are most known for, and even fun facts!

Attached is an explanation of the Communion of Saints, too.

Have a happy and healthy Halloween! Celebrate all of the saints that you have known in your life and are now in heaven!
